— Multiply22 —

Matthew Spandler-Davison - leader of the Church Evangelism Team - announced the development of a new Church planting/revitalization effort of the NBA at the Executive Board meeting on October 27th. Multiply 22 is a 10 month Church planting apprenticeship program where applicants who are chosen to be apprentices come alongside a coach (a pastor within the Nelson Association) and learn about Church planting and revitalization. Those at the Kentucky Baptist Convention are very excited that an initiative like this is happening on the associational level. Applications are now being accepted through the NBA website and the first round of apprentices will begin in January. If you would like to learn more about the apprenticeship you can contact our office or visit the website:
